Next term our topic is called 'Plant Earth'. and we will be learning all about animals and their habitats! These homework tasks can be done at any point throughout the half term. There are 9 homework tasks to choose from and each homework task is worth one point. You can do one, two, three, four, five or even all nine!

Useful Key Words:

animals habitats micro habitats insects

Insects food chain prey predator

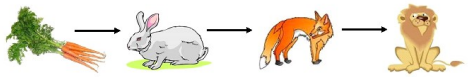
producers consumers

Use the internet or books to research animals that live in England. What are their habitats like?

Watch the video about food chains—

https://www.bbc.com/bitesize/articles/z3c2xnb

Can you draw your own food chain?



Take some pictures of animals in their habitats. What animals can you find?

Can you write out your 10 times table and the related division facts.

1 x 10 = 10

10 ÷ 1 = 10

Use the internet or books to research Steve Irwin… Who was he? What did he do?

Choose a nocturnal animal and make a fact file about it? What facts can you find out?

Go on a minibeast hunt to find insects in their microhabitats. Make a list of what you find.

What scales can you find in your house? What does it measure? (eg—baking scales, thermometer).

Make a list of what you can find and what it measure in.

Sketch a picture of an animal in its habitat using only a pencil.