

This half term we will be focussing on the story 'Handa's surprise' and looking at food in more detail for example, what different types of food are there and where it comes from. These homework tasks can be done at any point throughout the half term. Please bring them in to show your teacher once you have finished!

Useful Key Words:

Chinese New Year celebrate squash bend twist stretch multiplication division food fruit vegetables shapes describe properties poems rhyming story map letter dear

Use the internet or books to research how Chinese New Year is celebrated.

Can you make a model of a rocket using materials from around your house?

Can you create a story map of your favourite story?

Practice your maths skills on Numbots or TT Rockstars!

How many rhyming words can you think of? Can you use your rhyming pair in a rhyming couplet?

What is life like in Kenya? Can you research it and write a fact file showing everything you know?

Can you find out where your favourite food comes from?

Can you draw and label the parts of a plant?

Can you find out how to make different secondary colours?

